in 1927 general yang sen invited li qingyun to wanxian china to teach about health and longevity li qingyun was reported to be 250 years old at the time and his visit to wanxian was big news in 1970 yang sen compiled a book of his and other s accounts of li qingyun titled an authentic and true record of a 250 year old man which stuart alve olson started translating into english in 1982 besides the notion of someone living to 250 years of age this book goes well beyond the biography of li qingyun s life it has great historical value especially for westerners who are unfamiliar with much of chinese history towards the end of the qing dynasty it also explains incredible health therapies and provides information on what is now called medical qigong much is explained about daoism on meditation breathing qigong exercise food sex and philosophy for daoist living another true gem of this book is the philosophical teachings as much of this material has never been presented in english the depth of information provided in this book surpasses any previously published work on daoist health practices and philosophy it is rare to come across a text with such abundance of insights and written with such clarity as this material provides although qigong teachings of a taoist immortal the eight essential exercises of master li ching yun was published in 2002 which includes translations from yang sen s book the entire translation is now finally available this book belongs in everyone s library who studies or has an interest in chinese philosophy qigong regimes and biographies a companion dvd li qingyun s eight brocades is now available what do you believe about souls there are many very different doctrines taught in the world today concerning souls that are believed to be in all humans by most a soul is believed to be something that is wholly apart from the person a soul is in that a soul is something that is that is believed to be complete in its self without the person it will live after the person it is in is dead it is believed that a soul will exist forever without the person it will never be dead therefore a soul cannot be resurrected from the dead it is believed that a soul must live someplace forever and it will live either in heaven or hell even if there is no resurrection the doctrine of unconditional immortality of a deathless soul being in a person and that soul leaving that person at the death of the person makes it impossible for christ to have give his life to save that soul from death if a soul had immortality it would already have life and could never not have life all christ could do is give it a reward or punish it life is the most important possession we have without it there is nothing only by the resurrection at the second coming of christ will anyone have life after death after the resurrection the fate of those who are in christ 1 eternal life romans 6 23 2 shall inherit eternal life matthew 19 29 3 after the judgment they shall go away into eternal life matthew 25 46 4 will have eternal life john 3 5 5 christ will raise them up on the last day john 6 40 6 will be immortal after the resurrection 1 corinthians 15 51 56 7 will have incorruption 1 corinthians 15 42 8 will have glory 1 corinthians 15 43 9 will be like christ we shall be like him for we shall see him even as he is 1 john 3 2 10 are heirs according to the hope of eternal life titus 3 7 11 will have a spiritual body 1 corinthians 15 44 12 and as we have borne the image of the earthly the earthly flesh and blood body of adam was made to live on this earth but it cannot inherit the kingdom of god 1 corinthians 15 50 we shall also bear the image of the heavenly shall be like the spiritual body of christ for life in heaven 1 corinthians 15 47 56 13 will never perish john 10 28 14 forever with the lord 1 thessalonians 4 17 15 many mansions in my father s house in my father s house who is in heaven matthew 5 16 5 45 5 48 6 1 6 9 7 21 10 32 33 are many mansions i go to prepare a place for you
